

THE Mayo News

Mayo students awarded third- level scholarships

FIVE Mayo students have been awarded JP McManus All-Ireland Scholarships for their third-level education. The scheme provides financial assistance to many high-achieving students who completed their Leaving Certificate in 2015.

JP McManus has contributed €32 million to fund the provision of these scholarships each year, and it is estimated that over 1,300 students from the 32 counties will benefit from the scheme over its duration.

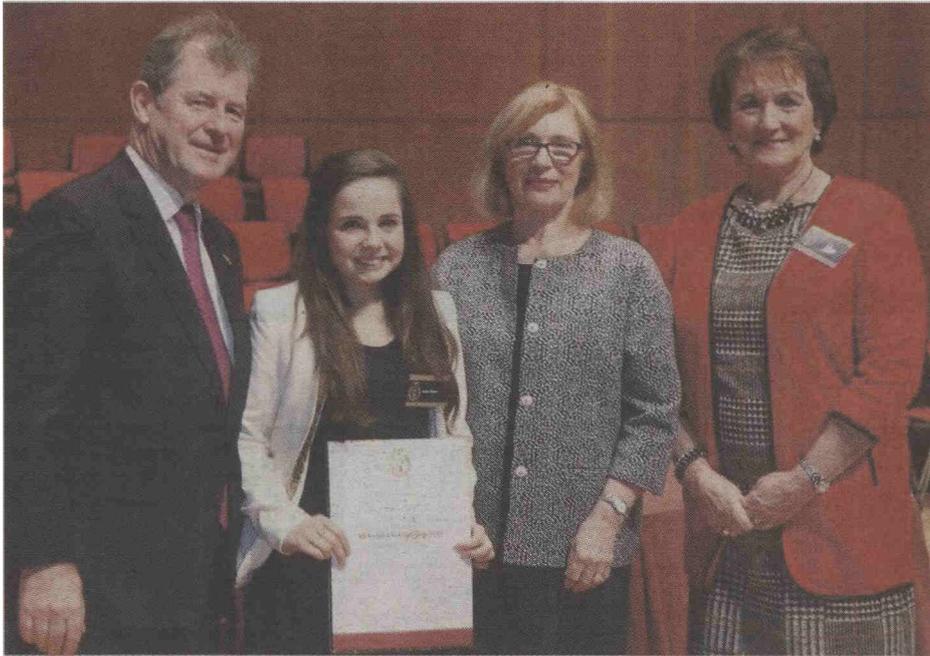

The awards are administered by the Department of Education & Skills and Department of Education in Northern Ireland.

The winning Mayo students are David Corless, UCD, former student of Colaiste Cholmáin, Claremorris; Seán Kitterick, former student of Rice College, Westport, and UCD; Aoife Neary, TCD, former student of St Mary's Secondary School Covent Of Mercy, Ballina; Karen Padden, Froebel College of Education, Maynooth, former student of St Mary's Secondary School Covent Of Mercy, Ballina; and Fia-chra Weiner, UCC, former student of St Louis Community School, Kiltimagh.

THE Mayo News

▲ Aoife Neary, Trinity College, Dublin and formerly of St Mary's Secondary School Convent of Mercy in Ballina received his scholarship from JP McManus and Minister for Education, Jan O'Sullivan, TD. Also pictured is Principal of St Mary's, Patsy Sweeney.

▲ Fiachra Weiner, UCC student and formerly of St Louis Community School, Kiltimagh received his scholarship from JP McManus and Minister for Education, Jan O'Sullivan, TD. Also pictured is Principal of St Louis Community School, Cahil Doherty.

THE Mayo News

▲ David Corless, UCD student and formerly of St Colman's College in Claremorris received his scholarship from JP McManus and Minister for Education, Jan O'Sullivan, TD. Also pictured is Principal of St Colman's College, Jimmy Finn.

▲ Seán Kitterick, UCD and formerly of Rice College, Westport received his scholarship from JP McManus and Minister for Education, Jan O'Sullivan, TD. Also pictured is Principal of Rice College, Michael Rabbette.

THE Mayo News

▲ Karen Padden, student Froebel College of Education, Maynooth and formerly of St Mary's Secondary School Convent of Mercy in Ballina received his scholarship from JP McManus and Minister for Education, Jan O'Sullivan, TD. Also pictured is Principal of St Mary's, Patsy Sweeney.